Individual Piping and Drumming Rules:

1. All events shall be conducted in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Eastern United States Pipe Band Association (EUSPBA).
2. Please be advised that competition times will begin promptly at time designated in email and it is imperative that the times be strictly enforced. Each soloist will receive advance notice of his/her competition times which will be accompanied with gate admission tickets prior to competition. Start times are subject to change based on number of competitors.

3. Although field entries are discouraged, it will be at the discretion of the pipe and drum committee if field entries can be accepted and that such late entries will not disrupt the competition schedule.
4. The order of play will be first to enter, last to play determined by postmark.
5. Drummers must provide their own accompanist according to EUSPBA rules.
6. Competitors must be ready when called or be disqualified.
7. Decisions by the Directors, Stewards, Monitors, and Judges will be final. Protests must be submitted in writing before the final awards ceremony. The games committee reserves the right to remove or combine events when not in conflict with EUSPBA rules.
8. Competitors must be in appropriate Highland attire (except Practice Chanter and Drum Pad) to compete and to receive awards.
9. No award medals will be worn during any competition or mass bands.
10. Entry passes will be available at the Piping and Drumming tent at the gate. No parking passes are necessary. Passes will not be mailed.
11. All professional competitors will receive cash awards. First, second and third place medals will be awarded in the amateur solo grades. Trophies will be awarded for Piper and Drummer of the Day per grade. Awards must be picked up before the end of the games or be forfeited. Trophies and medals will be awarded on Saturday at the last massed bands.
12. Competition is subject to delay or complete cancelation due to weather on the day of the event.

Smoky Mountain Festival and Games reserves the right to limit entries in any event based on available time to complete the event. Any competitor that is disallowed shall be notified no later than 3 weeks before the event or at the earliest opportunity.*
